

24 Core Passion® Collaborative Phrases

Whenever we set out to collaborate and share our ideas to achieve a common goal, we begin to observe ourselves approaching the project from many different perspectives. It becomes important to understand our Core Passion® energies that drive these diverse approaches so we communicate from a place of empowerment as our Core Passion® Codes drive us and guide us to a successful outcome.

Recognition	I have a sense we can achieve our goal. I will volunteer to take the lead on this.
Partnership	I believe we can support each other to. I am willing to follow up and take care of the necessary details.
Creativity	I am excited to work together to explore all of the possibilities. I see so many possibilities; we can do this and this and this.
Form	I am anxious to organize our ideas to see where we are taking this. I want to know exactly what is expected and how much time we have to get this accomplished.
Change	I wasn't informed on this and I am not sure I want to take part. I am curious to try a new approach just to see what will happen.
Service	I want to make sure we all take our part and learn our roles. If anyone needs extra time or help I am willing to be of assistance when needed.
Research	This is questionable; I don't trust we have all of the information to move forward. I am wondering if we need to look deeper into what we want to achieve.
Power	I want to get things rolling and achieve results as soon as possible. I have lots to do so let's get going, I can't spend a lot of time on this.
Enlightenment	I believe we need to reassess our plans and see if we can't ignite our original plan. I feel we may need to scrap this plan; I can't seem to get behind this project.
Inspiration	I have a sense there is more to this project than meets the eye. I am feeling anxious, I am not quite sure if this feels like it will work.
Mastership	I want to look are the bigger picture of what we are doing and lay out the timing. I know what needs to be done, let me lay out how I see us moving forward.
Compassion	I want to make sure we have not left anyone out that may have an interest in this project. I need to know we are doing this project for the good of all involved, this must meet as many needs as possible.